

What is the title of the text?

Who is the author of the text?

Do you know anything about the text or topic already?

What type of text is it?
(Circle or highlight the correct one)

Is it prose? a fictional story created from the writer's influences, experiences or their imagination.

Is it non-fiction? non-fiction texts are those that deal with facts, opinions and the real world. Types of non-fiction writing include newspapers, adverts, brochures, reference books and biographies.

Is it poetry? language chosen and arranged for its meaning, sound, and rhythm. It is typically written in verse.

Reading difficulty level:

1	2	3	4	5
Too easy	Easy	Just right	Challenging	Very difficult

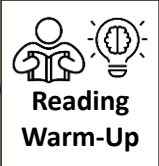

Briefly explain what the text is about:
(you can use bullet points).

What type of text do you think this is?
(Highlight above)

What is the text called and who wrote it? What did you know already?

In your own words, summarise what the text about.

Everyone will have different answers. It is about what YOU think.

What new information have you learned?
What have you learned about the writer?
What lessons or advice have you gained from the text?

1 _____

2 _____

3 _____

What have YOU learned from reading the text?

Share with your partner.

Make a list of any new words you have read or that you do not understand.

What do YOU think are the most important or interesting sentences in the text?

New or interesting words I have learned
OR words I do not understand yet:

word	definition

1. _____

2. _____

